Alabama Bankers Association 2010 Outstanding Young Banker

Award

One of the most prestigious recognitions bestowed on an Alabama young banker by the Association is the Alabama Outstanding Young Banker Award. Each year the CEO or upper level management is given the opportunity to submit the name of a deserving individual to receive this coveted honor. This award has proved to be significant in recognizing a worthy and qualified young banker.

Rules and Basis of Selection

1. Information on this form will be the sole basis for judging, and all data contained on the form itself will be considered. Answer all questions completely but concisely, be specific and restrict information to the questions asked.
2. Nominees must be at least 20 years of age, but must not have had their 39th birthday at any time during 2009.
3. Nominees need not be active in the Young Banker Section.
4. Nominees must be practicing bankers, deriving at least two-thirds of their total income from banking.
5. Nominees must have proved themselves to be good, sound bankers and business people, employing sound banking practices.
6. Nominees must have taken advantage of educational opportunities offered to help further themselves in the banking profession.
7. Nominees must have contributed constructively to their own banks and to the banking profession, and demonstrated sincere community interest through leadership or participation in civic, agricultural, church, or fraternal organizations, or through outstanding personal contributions to their communities.
8. The winner will be selected by a committee composed of the President, immediate Past President and CEO of the Alabama Bankers Association, and a Past President of the Leadership Section.
9. This project is designed to give recognition to the outstanding work being done by the young bankers of our state and is an annual project of the Alabama Bankers Association.
10. All entries must reach the Association office via mail or fax no later than April 1, 2010.
